PE-RU-NA IN THE HOME

RESIDENCE AND PHOTO OF J. E. CARSON, TORONTO, CAN.

Mr. J. E. Carson, 218 St. Clarens Ave., Toronto, Canada, Inspector London Life Insurance Co., London, Canada, writes:

"I have used the popular remedy known as Pe-ru-na, and I can testify as to its merits. I regard it as one of the best tonics now on the market."

TORONTO is one of the most beautiful cities in the world. It is a city of homes and churches, a city of intelligence and good government, a city of healthful climate and beautiful scenery.

Among the many beautiful homes which make up the city of Toronto, is the home of J. E. Carson, 218 St. Clarens Ave. In this home Peruna is revered as a family medicine.

Peruna can boast of being a fixture in over a million such happy homes on this continent, where it is used for the petty ailments that afflict the family.

Coughs and colds, catarrh of the head and throat, sore throat in various forms, disturbances of digestion, catarrh of the stomach, and other internal organs. These ailments, petty in themselves, are often the beginning of very serious diseases.

A dose or two of Peruna taken in the beginning may quickly avert tedious if not fatal illnesses.

Head Stopped Up.

Mr. G. W. Martin, Hartford, Ontario, choir leader at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, writes:

"I have been troubled with catarrh for a great many years, and always trying something for it, but was able only to secure temporary relief until I used Peruna. Only five bottles rid my system of all traces of catarrh, and I have not noticed the slightest trouble for several months. My head was stopped up, my breath offensive, and it is a relief to be able to breathe freely once more."

The following wholesale druggists will supply the retail trade:

Lungs and Bronchial Tubes.

Mr. J. C. Hervas Pelletier, Dept. de l'Agriculture, Ottawa, Ont., writes:

"The Peruna is particularly efficacious in the cure of catarrhal affections of the lungs and bronchial tubes. Six bottles cured me this winter of bronchitis. I am completely restored and I owe thanks to the Peruna. I have recommended this remedy to a large number of my friends afflicted with the same trouble, and they have verified my good opinion of this valuable remedy."

QUAINT CEREMONY AT WU'S HOME

Funeral Rites Participated In By Washington People

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 21.—A quaint ceremony in memory of the dead Emperor and Dowager was held in the Chinese Legation this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Minister Wu, his staff, and some other Chinese of importance, all wearing long black cloaks and heavy black beaver hats, were in the small parlor of the Legation to receive those who called to offer condolence.

The crimson walls were draped in imperial blue, the color of the new reign, and the altar in the reception room was decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums. Tall tapers among the blossoms illuminated two banners of pale blue satin, one bearing the name of the Emperor, the other that of the Empress.

An usher appointed to conduct visitors to the memorial altar patiently instructed each newcomer how to proceed, the chief requirement being a deep obeisance. Later each guest greeted the Minister, and, bowing solemnly down the line, retired, escorted by the usher.

From the balcony above the main reception hall the women and the children of the Legation peeped coyly over the balustrades, but no woman appeared officially in the service, nor were the ladies of the diplomatic or official world invited.

The Italian Embassy telephoned for information on the subject of women attending, and when the Ambassador and his staff appeared no woman accompanied him.

Among the few women who did call, in ignorance of Chinese etiquette, was Baroness Hengelmüller, wife of the Austrian Ambassador. She was resplendent in a green Directoire gown, and a Charlotte Corday hat of velvet trimmed in gilt braid and pink rosebuds. She walked down the line shaking hands and giving a word of greeting to each member of the receiving group.

Mrs. Newberry, wife of the Acting Secretary of the Navy, was among the American women there. After gracefully bowing before the tablets she turned to Mr. Wu and presented the proper apologies for the non-appearance of Mr. Newberry.

The French Ambassador and his suite arrived first and in common with others displayed visible anxiety about what to do.

Closely following the French Ambassador came Assistant Secretary of State Bacon, who asked for and gracefully followed directions. After the ceremony he presented to the Minister Secretary Root's condolence and regret that, having met with an accident to his foot, he could not attend.

Late in the afternoon Admiral Dewey's aide, in full uniform, appeared and after performing his obligations, presented Mr. Wu with the Admiral's regrets.

Among callers were Vice President Fairbanks, John W. Foster, Gifford Pinchot, Secretary of Interior Garfield, the Minister from Bolivia, the Minister from Hayti, Justice Brewer, Justice Brown, and Mr. Do Amaral.

The Ambassador from Japan was among the late callers. Baron Takahira, whose presence created a visible ripple of interest among the ushers, first presented his regards to the Minister, ceremoniously shaking hands three times before turning to the altar, before which he bowed profoundly several times. After standing for a second motionless Baron Takahira again turned to Mr. Wu and held a prolonged conversation.

Almost on the stroke of 5, the President's aide, Col. Bromwell, in full dress uniform, was ushered into the reception room. Bowing three times before the flower-decked altar, Col. Bromwell gave his name and delivered the President's message of condolence. In addition to the President's card, Col. Bromwell brought with him the cards of the President's secretary, Mr. Loeb, and Capt. Archibald Butt, one of the White House aides.

DIPLOMATIC BOBBY

"Bobby," called his mother, "did you give your baby brother a slice of that raisin pie?" "Yessum," answered Bobby, "and, mamma, after I had given it to him I noticed that he had the slice with all the seeds in it." "You careless boy! Never the least consideration for your little brother, I suppose." "Oh, yes, mamma, I had lots of consideration." "You did?" "Yes, indeed. When I saw all those seeds I was afraid they might give him appendicitis, so I ate his slice, too."

JAPANESE WANT TARIFF RAISED

Letter Is Written To Hawaiian Planters' Association

As a result of the exchange of communications between the Planters' Association and Japanese Association for Higher Wages, a conference will probably be held in the near future by the officers of the association to consider the wages of the Japanese laborers on the plantations. According to the members of the Japanese association the wages paid the laborers at present are so inadequate that it is necessary that something should be done to encourage the laborers. That is what the agitators say.

Fred K. Makino, chairman of the executive committee of the Japanese association stated yesterday that he had received a large number of letters from plantation Japanese, expressing themselves in favor of the attitude taken by the association. Some of the plantation Japanese are already in town, prepared to respond to any interrogations that they may be required to answer. They are anxious to know the result of the conference. Makino and Negoro, who are handling this delicate question are highly pleased with the receipt of a letter from W. O. Smith of the Planters' Association, and hope that mutual benefit will result following the conference.

The following communication, together with the resolution, passed and adopted by the Japanese association were sent to the Planters' Association. The Planters' Association letter also follows:

Honolulu, T. H., Dec. 17th, 1908.

Sir:—We have the honor to address you this letter and to respectfully request that you will kindly confer with us in relation to the wages question of the Japanese laborers in the plantations, and that you will, for that purpose, appoint the time and the place of the desired conference.

We have the honor to be, sir, Very respectfully yours,

FRED K. MAKINO,
Chairman, Executive Committee.

M. NEGORO,
Secretary of the Higher Wages Association.

To Hon. W. O. Smith,
Secretary Planters' Association,
Honolulu, T. H.

P. S.—We beg to hand you a copy of the resolution passed by our executive committee.

RESOLUTION

Whereas, the interest of Japanese laborers and that of the planters are identical and the prosperity of one is the prosperity of the other, therefore be it resolved by the Executive Committee of the Higher Wages Association that the sugar interest of Hawaii demands that the present duty on foreign sugar be maintained;

That the tariff should not only not be reduced, but that it should be raised;

That the free admission of the Philippine sugar is detrimental to the sugar interest of Hawaii;

That the further reduction of tariff on the Cuban sugar is detrimental to the healthy development of Hawaii on the traditional American line of civilization; and

The Executive Committee further resolved that Congress in session now provide an adequate protection for other Hawaiian industries, such as steel, pineapple, tobacco, rice and coffee industries of Hawaii.

Honolulu, T. H., December 18, 1908.

Honolulu, T. H., Dec. 21st, 1908.
Mr. Fred K. Makino, P. O. Box 749, City.

Sir:—The communication dated December 19th and signed by yourself, as chairman, and M. Negoro, secretary of the Higher Wages Association, came to hand this day.

The communication will in due course be submitted to the Trustees of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association.

Yours truly,
(Signed) W. O. SMITH,
Secretary H. S. P. A.

BEATED SHOES HERE IMMENSE REGAL STOCK

The long-expected shipment of Regal shoes has arrived. It came on the Hilonian yesterday, and furnished work for the whole force of salesmen till late last night, unpacking for a big Christmas sale today. Manager Vickers was determined to have the mammoth stock unpacked and ready for Christmas shoppers this morning, and as a consequence, is looking tired and happy today.

Regal shoes are very popular as Christmas gifts, and the Regal Shoe Store has done a big business with their Christmas shoe certificates. Everyone is sure of a fit in the Regal quarter sizes.

The legal fight to remove Harry K. Thaw from New York to Pittsburgh to testify in the bankruptcy proceedings was renewed in the Federal Court at Philadelphia. Ex-Governor Stone argued for Roger O'Mara, the receiver.
